

David Ernst, MD, FACEP

Dr. Ernst was Chief Resident of the Akron City Hospital Summa Health Emergency Medicine Residency and has over 17 years' experience practicing as a Board Certified Emergency Physician and Clinical Assistant Professor for The University of Toledo Medical College and Ohio University College of Medicine at Firelands Regional Medical Center in Sandusky, Ohio. He also practiced as a Life Flight Physician for Metro Life Flight and Trauma Center in Cleveland. Dr. Ernst joined EPOWERdoc, Inc, Inc. in 2004 as Chief Medical Officer and has been responsible for the clinical design and development of their Emergency Department Information System (EDIS) as well as a number of other Risk Management documentation products in their product portfolio. He then lead the development of a new EHR specifically designed for Correctional Medicine. Dr. Ernst also has written and submitted several design Patents for the EPOWERdoc EDIS system. In 2007 Dr. Ernst was promoted to President of EPOWERdoc, Inc. Dr. Ernst is active in the American College of Emergency Physicians and currently serves as Alternate Councilor for the Freestanding Emergency Center Section. He has spoken at many conferences on Freestanding Emergency Center data analysis and Quality Measures in the management of the Freestanding Emergency Center and other topics. He is also active in Emergency Department Practice Management Association as Chair of Membership Committee, American Academy of Emergency Medicine FEC Committee, Texas Association of Freestanding Emergency Centers, HIMSS, and is a Founding Member of the National Association of Freestanding Emergency Centers.