

Anthony H.. Choe, JD, MPH

Anthony H. Choe is Counsel in the Washington, DC office of Polsinelli PC and a member of its Health Care Practice. Mr. Choe provides strategic, pragmatic and actionable legal advice on regulatory and transactional matters to help his clients achieve their business goals and navigate U.S. healthcare laws. Tony represents a diverse array of health care organizations, including: integrated health delivery systems; provider-sponsored health plans; health plan services vendors; practice management companies; telehealth companies; hospitals, ambulatory surgery centers, long-term care and other health facilities; pharmacies and DMEPOS suppliers; laboratories and IDTFs; practitioner groups, retail clinics and urgent care centers; private equity sponsors and their portfolio companies; and health care industry investors. Tony has also advised national and regional health insurers, third party administrators, pharmacy benefits managers, dental benefits carriers, care coordination companies and other managed care entities. Prior to his legal career, was a Manager for the National Committee on Quality Assurance (NCQA), a leading accreditation body for managed care organizations, and as a Managed Care Project Manager for IPRO, the Medicare quality improvement organization for New York State. Mr. Choe is a frequent speaker at industry conferences and author. He is active in the American Health Lawyers Association and previously served as a Lead Coordinator for the Fraud and Abuse Practice Group, Vice Chair of the Mentoring Committee, and as a Team Leader and contributing author for the AHLA Corporate Practice of Medicine: A Fifty State Survey. He also holds leadership positions in the ABA Health Law Section and is a member of the American Telemedicine Association. Mr. Choe is peer rated "AV Preeminent" by Martindale-Hubbell and is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and New York. Mr. Choe graduated with a JD and Certificate in Health Law from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, where he was the Assistant Articles Editor of the Pittsburgh Tax Review, received the CALI Award of Excellence in Health Care Fraud and Abuse, participated at the National Health Law Moot Court competition and was a member of a Health Law Clinic team that successfully challenged a Medicare national coverage determination.