

David Ernst, MD, FACEP

David Ernst, MD, FACEP practiced Emergency Medicine for 17 years as Clinical Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine for the Ohio University College of Medicine and Univ. of Toledo College of Medicine at Firelands Regional Medical Center in Ohio.

Dr. Ernst currently serves as President of EPOWERdoc, an Emergency Medicine software company He has also led the design and development of their Emergency Department Information System, Correctional Medicine Electronic Health Record system, and new Telemedicine Software Platform.

Dr. Ernst has several patents in his name related to wound irrigation devices and Emergency Department Information System designs.

Dr. Ernst is actively involved in Freestanding Emergency Center (FEC) medicine and Telemedicine and currently serves as Councilor for the American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP) Freestanding Emergency Center Section, Founding Member of the National Association of Freestanding Emergency Centers (NAFEC), Member of American Academy of Emergency Medicine FEC Committee, HIMSS, ACEP Informatics Section, ACEP Rural Health Section, ACEP Telemedicine Section, Chairman of the Membership Committee for Emergency Department Practice Management Association (EDPMA), and is a Board Member and Executive Committee member for EDPMA. He has written numerous articles and lectured on topics in FEC Medicine and Emergency Telemedicine at multiple national conferences including the ACEP Scientific Assembly FEC Section meetings, NAFEC conferences, the 2016 ACEP Scientific Assembly Urgent Matters Conference, and the EDPMA Solutions Summit Conferences.