

Andrea Brault, M.D., MMM, FACEP
President and Chief Executive Officer of EGO

Andrea completed her emergency medicine residency at the University of California, Irvine, in 1993 and continued her clinical practice for twenty years. Andrea joined the Company in 1999 to build the management team, and has transitioned to managing the Company. She earned the Master of Medical Management degree from the University of Southern California. This degree focuses on working with physicians to understand and better manage the business aspects of medicine. As the Chair and Board Member of the Emergency Department Practice Management Association, she is a strong voice for independent practices, advocating for fair physician reimbursement, and is a leader in national policy discussions surrounding the issue of balance billing. She has served as President of California ACEP, Co-Chair of the Reimbursement Committee, and a member of the Board of Directors. She is also a major financial contributor to the Emergency Medicine Action Fund (EMAF), an advocacy organization working nationwide to secure and improve the rights and opportunities of the independent practice of emergency medicine. She is a member of the national ACEP's Reimbursement Committee.